Hill Panel on FBI Urged by Senators

Post 6/4/72

Associated Press

Sens. Fred R. Harris (D-Okla.) and Lee Metcalf (D-Mont.) introduced a resolution yesterday to establish a special congressional committee of three House members and three senators to oversee activities of the FBI.

Harris suggested that the committee consider legislation to limit the term of office of the FBI director, and study the relationship between the Attorney General and the FBI director.